HUN DEMANDS WILL BE REFUSED BOLSHEVISM THREATENS EUROPE

NO IMPORTANT ALTERATIONS WILL BE MADE IN TERMS TO GERMANY IS THE PRESENT BELIEF IN FRENCH CAPITAL

GRAVE SITUATION EXISTS IN CENTRAL EUROPE WHERE BOLSHEVISM THREATENS TO ENGULF AUSTRIA, POLAND AND PART OF GERMANY SAY LONDON AND PARIS REPORTS.

AUSTRIA NEAR BOLSHEVIK RULE

GERMANS WITHDRAW MATERIAL AND ARMED FORCES AND CIVILIANS APPEAR TO HAVE ACCEPTED ALLIED ADVANCE AS A SETTLED FACT.

(By Associated Press)

There is an evident impression in Paris that the allied reply to the German counter proposals, which probably will be ready late Saturday night, will refuse the German request for important alterations in the terms of peace.

The Germans will be given five days in which to make up their minds as to their course. Thus, final action by them on the treaty may be expected on or about June 18th.

While the council of four probably will explain the provisions of the treaty and may grant some minor concessions, it appears that there are to be no changes that will materially lighten the burden placed on the enemy by the treaty.

According to French sources, the reply to the counter proposals agrees to a plebiscite in upper Silesia, subject to certain clearly defined conditions.

Advices from Coblenz tell of the Germans withdrawing all material from territories east of the allied bridgeheads, and says that armed German forces also have retired a considerable distance east of the ground held by the allies on the east bank of the Rhine. That there is a disposition on the part of the German civilian population to be prepared for an allied advance into Germany also is indicated.

MENACE OF BOLSHEVISM IS GROWING

The menace of Bolshevism in central Europe has again assumed proportions which cause concern in peace conference circles. The success of the Hungarian soviet army against the Czecho-Slovaks, the military reverse suffered by the Kolchak forces in southeastern Russia, and the danger of Austria passing under Bolshevist control, have brought matters to a state where there is no disposition in official circles to minimize the danger.

Poland, hemmed in by Bolshevism on the east and south, and hard pressed by the Germans on the west, is said also to be potentially threatened from the direction of Austria.

The formation of a centralized organization for the control of international economic affairs during the period of reconstruction after the war is being considered by the council of four.

AUSTRIA IN GRASP OF BOLSHEVISM

LONDON, JUNE 12.—(Associated Press)—A communist government will be proclaimed in Austria on Sunday, with promise of immediate success, according to information in government circles here.

The best information indicates that about forty per cent of the Austrian army is Bolshevik. The communists are expected quickly to align themselves with the Hungarian communists.

FUND IS ASKED TO BE USED IN TRAILING 'REDS'

Attorney General Palmer Asks
Half Million Appropriation

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 12.—

Attorney General Palmer today asked Congress for a special half million dollar appropriation to carry on the hunt for "anarchists, bomb throwers, and enemies of law and order."

"The recent violence and attempted violence on the part of individuals associated with anarchistic organizations," he said in a letter to Secretary Glass, who transmitted the request to the House, "discloses existing conditions which render this supplemental estimate necessary in order that there may be ample means for protecting the public and enforcing the laws of the United States."

HOUSE IS ON WAY TO ENGLAND

(By Associated Press)

Paris, June 12.—Although Colonel House, of the American peace delegation, will go to England tonight, it is authoritatively denied that he is to visit Ireland to investigate the Sinn Fein situation, as reported.

GREATEST HERO OF WAR SPURNS FORTUNE, GOES HOME TO WED

Sgt. Alvin C. York, the outstanding hero of the world war who slew sixteen Germans, captured thirty-two machine guns and took 132 prisoners, is back home in the mountains of Tennessee ready to settle down again to the life of the mountaineers. He spurned a fabulous offer to go into vaudeville for a few weeks to go straight home to marry the girl who had been waiting for him. She was Miss Grace Williams. York is second elder of the Church of Christ and Christian Union at Pall Mall, his home town in the mountains and was an "objector" to strife when the war broke out. There wasn't much of a furor when Alvin arrived home. His mother shook hands with him and said, "Howdy, Alvin, glad to see you home again." Then she proceeded to "fix things" for Alvin to "wash up." One of the photos above shows the start of the ablutions with his sister gazing spell-bound at her hero.

AGREE ON REPLY TO THE HUNS

(By Associated Press)

Paris, June 12.—The allied reply to the German counter proposals is complete, it was stated in a responsible quarter late today. Agreements in principle have been reached on all points. The question of Germany's admission to the League of Nations has been settled, but the nature of the agreement has not been disclosed. It now remains only to draft the reply.

Orders Issued to Great Number of Telegraphers to Cease Handling Commercial Matter

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, June 12.—In the face of statements by officials of the commercial telegraph companies that the nation-wide strike of operators had failed, S. J. Konenkamp, international president of the commercial telegraphers' union, announced today that assurance had been given that the New York broker operators, some 3500 strong, would join the strike.

The announcement followed long distance telephone conversations with union representatives in New York and Atlantic City where the American Federation of Labor convention is in session.

"Despite claims of company officials that the strike has failed the outlook is more favorable than ever," he said. "Today there are fully 18,000 telegraph company workers on strike throughout the country. The strike has hardly started. The best results are being obtained in the south, south-west and west. On Monday the electrical workers will join the strike, adding a total of more than 100,000 to the striking forces. We are out to win and we will win."

Company officials here say that the conditions are unchanged from yesterday and all business is being handled rapidly.

WIRE BUSINESS RUNS SMOOTHLY

(By Associated Press)

New York, June 12.—General officers of the Western Union Telegraph Company reported today that traffic was running smoothly throughout the country in face of the strike of operators called by the union.

No figures were available whether there had been an increase from the number of men absent from work yesterday, which was declared to have been only 166 out of a total of 40,000 employees.

ADMIT ROBBING JEWELRY STORE ARE BOUND OVER

Chas. Edwards and Robert Salzman, of Springfield, Confess Burglarizing the Worrell Store in This City.

Part of Loot Recovered, Including Nine Watches Thrown in Paint Creek.

After admitting their guilt in connection with the robbery of the Worrell Jewelry store in this city on the night of June 6th, Charles Edwards and Robert Salzman, both of Springfield, Ohio, were bound over to the grand jury and the bond of each was fixed at $500.

Chief Moore arrived in this city on the D. T. & I. train Wednesday evening, and soon afterward the men had entered pleas of guilty when arraigned before Mayor Dahl on charges of burglary and had been held to the higher court. Failing to provide bond the pair, one of whom had been in mischief of a similar kind before were placed in the county jail to await action of the grand jury. Edwards is 21 years of age and Salzman 19. Both are white.

The arrest of the pair occurred in Toledo as result of card sent out from this city by Chief of Police D. L.

Moore, and while the two were endeavoring to dispose of some of the stolen articles. Only a part of the loot was recovered, and according to Chief Moore, both had refused to admit their guilt until they were on the train and headed back toward this city to face the charges filed here. Then they admitted that they had committed the crime, stating that they had come to this city on Thursday and after going over the ground carefully, had stolen some tools from a carpenter outfit on Paint street, and started to work about 11:00 o'clock in the night.

"It was an easy job—the easiest I ever took part in" declared one of the men in discussing the details of the crime.

After both men had entered the store they took fully one hour in helping themselves, they declared, after which they left the store by the hole cut through the door, buried their brace and bit in the back yard, and then went to the old stove factory where they inspected their loot. Nine watches, which they considered of little value, were thrown into Paint creek at the concrete bridge near the B. & O. and these were recovered Wednesday evening, although the works were ruined.

ASKS DAMAGES IN THE SUM OF $1000

George W. Keefer, in the common pleas court of Highland county, has filed action against Wilson Morris and J. W. Butler, asking for damages in the sum of $1,000 over a realty deal.

Regarding the case the Hillsboro Dispatch says:

"Plaintiff claims that on or about October 25, 1918, he was the owner of Lot 682 of the McKell and Waddell addition to Greenfield. That defendants in concert, did connive, conspire, combine and arrange for a sale and exchange of said property, and induce plaintiff to execute a deed to Wilson Morris, by falsely, fraudulently and with intent to deceive, representing to plaintiff that a tract of land, which plaintiff was to take in exchange for his property, was worth the sum of $10,300, and was the exclusive property of the defendant. Plaintiff claims that the defendants jointly owned the property and was only worth the sum of $5,000. Plaintiff further says that he filed a petition in the Common Pleas Court, and that the defendants delivered up to him the deed for the Greenfield property. He further claims that he has been damaged in the sum of $1,000 and asks for judgment for same."

EXHIBITS FROM EVERY CLIME

All Countries to Be Represented at Methodist Centenary.

BUILDINGS BEING ERECTED

Art, Medical and Educational Exhibits at the Celebration at Columbus to Be Held June 20 to July 13, Will Reveal the Progress of Christianity the World Over—All Nations Will Mingle at Exposition Grounds.

The visitor who comes to the Methodist Centenary celebration at Columbus, June 20 to July 13, will find himself transplanted to a large park of more than 100 acres, which has cost the state of Ohio millions of dollars to develop, with an immense oval in front of which is an amphitheater seating 50,000 people, the Coliseum with a seating capacity of 8,000, and eight exhibit buildings with a floor space of 200,000 square feet scattered over these exposition grounds.

The exhibits will come from every part of the world. Settings built under personal direction of men who have just returned from the countries represented are now in construction. Later, natives will begin to arrive, bringing their strange customs, costumes and industries. A true picture of the lives of these people is the aim of the directors of the Centenary.

A miniature Ganges river actually flowing through the India building is the center of queer heathen religious customs. Here will be found the Hindu temple, Mohammedan mosque and sacred monkey temple, filled with chattering monkeys. Here, too, the sacred pigeons will be fed every day, amid much ceremony, and a fakir on his bed of spikes proves to less stoical observers that his soul is above the trivial sufferings of this world.

An Indian bazaar, overflowing with silks, wrought metals, idols and flower shops, occupies a large part of the India building. Public letter writer, sweetmeat seller, teeth-cleaner, beggars and curio seller mingle with the crowds of sightseers.

Indian village scenes and an Indian marriage procession, with the bridegroom riding an elephant, are included in the plans of Dr. Lewis E. Huxell of India, who is in Columbus to direct this building for the Centenary.

In an immense Kafir kraal, containing five full sized huts and a cattle inclosure, 60 Ethiopians will be found working at various typical industries, as a part of the African exhibit. The desert life of northern Africa, with Bedouin tents and Moorish town, is pictured in another section of the African building. This exhibit is directed by J. T. C. Blackmore of Algeria, who is also directing a reproduction of early Roman civilization in the same building.

Another part of the African building is devoted to Roosevelt and Rainey motion pictures, episodes from the life of Dr. David Livingstone, lion hunts and Kafir dances, the Uganda railway and African mission scenes. Other sections of Africa are fully represented in the large building which is under the direction of Dr. E. H. Richards of Oberlin.

The high gray walls of a Kwang city confront the visitor at the entrance to the Chinese building. At the left is a farm scene; inside the walls are the principal exhibits, including a large Chinese restaurant, open to the public; curio shop, money exchange, Confucian temple, typical Chinese homes, and a Methodist church such as is found in the Celestial republic.

Art, medical and educational exhibits revealing the progress of Christianity in that country form a part of the plans of Dr. John M. Gowdy of Fuchau, who with Y. C. Yong of the Chinese legation in Washington is directing the building.

Devastated France and Belgium are realistically reproduced in the European section, under the direction of Dr. E. M. Tippet, who has recently returned from abroad. The reproduction of a ruined French cathedral which seats 500 people will be used for lectures and pictures. Through the shell-shattered walls are seen the plains of Lombardy and ravaged Belgium.

Separate sections dealing with Russia, Scandinavia and the Balkans occupy a large share of the European building. Dr. G. B. Winton, Dr. W. H. Teeter and S. A. Neblett are in charge of South American, Cuban and Mexican sections.

A Japanese garden, with wishing bridge, lily pond, pergola and pavilion, is being built for the Japan building by a Japanese expert gardener. A gold mining scene and the famous Hiroshima kindergarten will also be reproduced in this section. Dr. E. R. Bull, formerly of Tokyo, is in charge of the Japan building. Exhibits from Korea under Dr. W. H. Cram of Nashville, Tenn.; from the Philippines under Dr. Harry Farmer of New York, and from Malaysia under Dr. J. R. Denyes of Pittsburgh, will be held in the same building.

Two large administration buildings are devoted to scenes and exhibits from every corner of North America, under the direction of Dr. Ralph E. Diffendorfer of New York. Alaskan and Pueblo Indians, mountaineers, New York shopkeepers and California Japs will be found working at their various industries, and living in widely contrasting environments. A typical southern plantation scene and a Mexican village will be picturesque features of the building. The purpose of these exhibits is to emphasize the work of the church in the diversified sections of United States and Canada.

A machinery hall, containing 40,000 feet, will be filled with photographs, charts, books and miscellaneous exhibits from all countries represented in the exposition.

"WITH ALLENBY IN PALESTINE"

Sacred Views Also to Be Shown at Methodist Celebration.

Photographs by Lowell Thomas, Famous Lecturer and Writer, Offers Rare Opportunity to Witness Military Operations at Celebration at Columbus, June 20 to July 13.

Would you like to fly from Cairo to Jerusalem?

Would you like to hover over the pyramids and cross, in a few minutes, the country over which the Israelites wandered for 40 years?

Would you like to stand in the cave of Machpelah, before the tombs of Abraham, of Isaac, of Jacob, of Rebecca, of Rachel, where only three Christians have ever stood?

Would you like to go "nose-diving" over Bethlehem at the rate of 150 miles an hour?

Would you like to see Allenby's soldiers capture Jerusalem and Jericho and Christian sentries guarding the Mount of Olives and the Garden of Gethsemane?

The opportunity to do all these will be presented at the Methodist Centenary celebration at Columbus, O., June 20 to July 13, in the Lowell Thomas travelogue, "With Allenby in Palestine." For, in this talk, illustrated by amazing moving pictures and still photographs, the first authentic eye-witness account by a fully accredited observer of this dashing campaign will be given.

They show the great military operation from its beginning to its end, when the Turk had been driven out of the Holy Land and Allenby stood astride the Berlin-Bagdad railroad at Aleppo, ending the Mittel Europa scheme of the Kaiser and the pan-Germans forever.

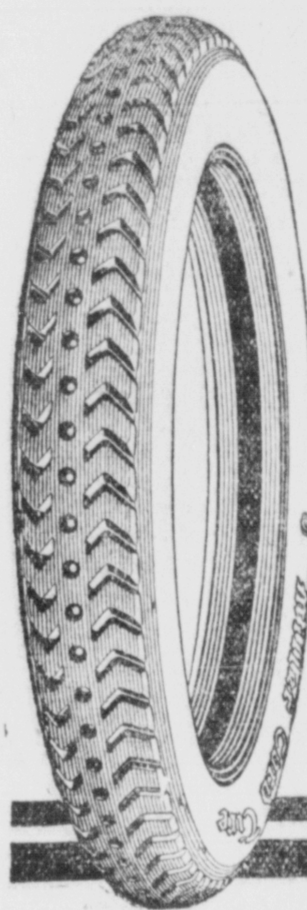

But they show more than that. They show all the sacred places of which Christians have heard since their childhood. They show how the places look today and how the people of Palestine are actually living. They show almost everything that one would care to see or know of Palestine—certainly more than any ordinary traveler could see in half a dozen visits to that country.

These travelogues have obtained the unanimous indorsement of the clergy of New York city. They will appear at Columbus during the entire time of the great Methodist celebration.

HAVE ODD CAMPING PLACE.

How would you enjoy living in the horse exhibit building at the exposition grounds, chaperoned by hideous Chinese idols by Kali, the Goddess of Murder, and numerous other deities more powerful than they are beautiful? That is what a dozen young women from New York and New Jersey are doing at Columbus, O., where the Methodist Centenary celebration will be held June 20 to July 13.

"Don't think for a moment that we are not having a fine time," said one of the young women. "Our quarters upstairs are quite cozy. We even have a piano, and it is like a vacation for us to be camping out here. Besides the work of classifying and arranging all these wonderful foreign exhibits is fascinating."

Mr. Seitz is expected to come here after his machine at once.

HOW PEACE TERMS LEAVE ONCE GREAT AUSTRIA

DISCUSS PLANS FOR COMMUNITY HOSPITAL HERE

Need of Greatly Enlarged Hospital Facilities to Meet Demand, is Cited by Interested Citizens.

Tentative Plans Call For $25,000 to Convert Persinger Homestead Into Modern Hospital.

Quite a number of citizens, including stockholders of the Fayette Hospital Company, met at the Court House Wednesday evening to discuss plans for the community hospital which is to be the outgrowth of the recent purchase of the old Persinger homestead in Millwood, and plans for which provide for one of the best community hospitals in this part of the state, providing citizens loyally support the movement.

Dr. W. E. Ireland was appointed chairman of the meeting and the business of the evening, the formulation of plans for making the recently acquired Persinger property into a modern hospital was taken up.

The group was first addressed by Dr. Ireland who brought out the urgent need of the city of Washington and surrounding territory for a large and thoroughly equipped hospital.

He stated that although the present Fayette hospital was not at all adequate and the community must have a large hospital where there would be no congestion and where the rank and file of the county might be taken care of with much better facilities.

These points were discussed, and favored by each man who took the floor.

The location of the Persinger property, the size and architecture of the house and the surroundings were expressed as being second to none. One doctor voiced the belief that the property could easily be transformed into the most beautiful hospital for a city of this size in the country.

Plans for raising money to be expended in the project were discussed. The Greenfield hospital was cited as an example where a hospital had been almost furnished and equipped by the endowments of churches and lodges, etc. It was asserted that the same course could be followed in this city.

A finance committee and a soliciting committee to take charge of the campaign were agreed upon. These committees are to be announced later.

It is expected that the sum of $25,000 will be required.

Each man present expressed the belief that the citizens of Washington and Fayette county would see through to the finish such a movement.

Complete plans for obtaining funds have not been fully settled upon, but it was urged that every citizen get behind the project and lend all aid possible to the undertaking.

CHICKENS CAUSE MUCH COMPLAINT

Attention of the city officials has been called to depredation of chickens which visit neighboring gardens and proceed to spoil them by scratching out or devouring the plants.

Mayor Dahl has announced that persons raising chickens must keep them penned up securely so that they will not damage adjoining gardens, believing that the gardens are usually worth more than the chickens.

Some persons who have lost heavily by reason of trespassing chickens, have taken the extreme way out of the difficulty by killing the chickens, it is reported.

HEAVY STORM ON SNOW HILL PIKE

One of the heaviest rains that has hit the county recently occurred about four o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the region of the Snow Hill pike.

The rain was accompanied by a strong wind and considerable hail and reports state that the wheat in that locality has been laid flat to the ground. Water is standing in the fields and corn growing will be delayed several days.

The storm played a strange freak by stopping exactly at Sugar Creek. It is announced, so that while farms on one side were drenched yet the fields are being cultivated on the opposite side.

Lactofeed is an auxiliary feed that is just naturally so crammed full of pent-up energy a hog can't help enjoying himself when he tastes it.

The value of any kind of feed is determined by its percentage of digestibility—how much of it really does the work?

The digestibility of crude protein in corn meal is about 76 per cent; that of carbohydrates in corn meal is 84 per cent. IN LACTOFEED IT IS ONE HUNDRED PER CENT!

Lactofeed is distributed by the manufacturer through all cream stations operated by the J. A. LONG CO.

Teachers' Pay

By some method, very evident, from the excellent results attained, the outcome of splendid and practical business ability possessed by her public spirited business men and officials, Cincinnati has managed to weather the financial crisis which is gripping all Ohio municipalities in fairly good condition.

By reason of good management Cincinnati is not only able to maintain her schedule of pay for the teachers in the public schools, but has voted and is prepared to meet, financially, an increase in the pay of its school teachers.

There seems no good reason why other cities can't do what Cincinnati has done with good management and economy and resourcefulness in public affairs.

Thousands of school teachers in Ohio are woefully underpaid. Lack of finances is given as the excuse but the teachers keep patriotically at work hoping for a wage more nearly approximating the demands of living costs upon the purse.

The very first salaries or wages to be increased in all the public service should be those of the teachers, who shape the mental and moral welfare of the future manhood and womanhood of the nation.

Without their tireless work and splendid ability and character the nation would soon drift onto dangerous shoals.

The teachers earn more money than they are receiving, they need more and they must have more, even if we must dispense with some other public servants or reduce other salaries.

Every municipality in Ohio can afford to follow the example of Cincinnati in financial management if for nothing more than to pay the teachers a decent wage.

The Army's Turn

The army fliers are determined that the splendid achievement of the navy airmen in piloting, successfully, the giant seaplane N. C. 4 across the Atlantic ocean, shall not be accepted without a rival for public approval.

Within the next few days, possibly on the fifteenth of June, Captain Roy F. Francis of the U. S. Army air forces will leave New York on his trip to San Francisco, a distance of 2,750 miles, which he purposes to cover in nineteen hours, stopping only once, at North Platte, Nebraska.

If Captain Francis succeeds, with his huge Martin bombing airplane, according to his plans he will make an average speed of one hundred and thirty miles per hour—an unprecedented test for the liberty motor and one which other motor designers would hesitate to accept.

If successful Captain Francis will also break all records for continuous flight—1502 miles—300 miles farther than the long lap of the N. C. 4 from New Foundland to the Azores.

While the dream of Captain Francis may be realized to the full extent, while he may make a longer non-stop flight record, and fly faster, yet it is likely the flight across the ocean will always remain the more popular with the romantic-loving public.

There is a glamour attaching to the achievement of the airman who must keep on, even though his actual record is not so good as the man who flies with comparative safety. The more dangerous achievement will always be the popular one.

The Serious Senate

When Senator Borah introduced in the Senate his so-called Irish resolution, requesting the sympathy of the peace council in behalf of the people of Ireland, it seemed that the very pinnacle of inanity had been achieved and that there were no more towering heights of folly to be attained.

We were mistaken. The Senate passed the resolution with a whirl and the "most dignified and ablest legislative body on earth" went on record as requesting the peace conference to interfere in the internal affairs of Great Britain.

True, we Americans all know that the Senate was not serious in its action and that nothing was farther from the minds of the senators than to seriously advise the peace council to take up an internal discussion in the domain of our most powerful ally, Great Britain, just as we are approaching the most stupendous national adjustment in all history. The Senate had no intention of alienating the government of Great Britain and neither did the Senate have any intention of placing this nation on record as hostile to the British government.

The senators were making a cheap appeal for the "Irish" vote in America.

But what will Great Britain think of the Senate and what should Americans think of the Senate for such a performance?

POETRY FOR TODAY

ELEGIA AMOR

Love brought me kisses—
Love brought me kisses to my bed;
I shall not know how great my bliss is—
Till love is dead.

Love brought me splendor—
Love brought me garlands ere we wed
And wrap me in his mantle, tender—
Till love was dead.

Love brought me glory—
Love brought me chaplets for my head,
I could not know how false love's story—
Till love was dead.

Love broke my altar—
Love broke my altar where I said:
Now thou art mine, I will not falter
Till thou art dead!

Love stole my jewel—
Love stole my jewel ere he fled,
How could I know that love was cruel—
Till love was dead?

Love lies a bleeding—
Love lies a bleeding where he led;
I pass the traitor by, unheeding—
For love is dead!

O, love is dying!
Love, dying, lies where hate was bred,
I kiss in vain, love's soul is flying—
Forever dead.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Our Readers

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitate to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Washington C. H. woman is confirmed after four years.

Mrs. Harriet Syferd, 618 S. Main St., Washington C. H., says: "I had a great deal of misery in my back and I was nearly laid up with attacks of lumbago. When I over-exerted, my kidneys caused me considerable annoyance. I had bladder trouble, too, and often suffered with inflammation. I was restless after going to bed and mornings. It was an effort for me to do my work. I was all run down. After I had taken two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was entirely cured." (Statement given August 1, 1912.)

On August 6, 1917 Mrs. Syferd said: "I am pleased to say Doan's Kidney Pills have brought a lasting cure of lumbago and the other symptoms of kidney trouble in my case." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. Advt.

IN THE OLD DAYS WHEN THE CIRCUS CAME TO TOWN

FARM NOTES

Planting Soybeans in Place of Corn.

Soybeans can be planted with profit in many places where corn has failed or where the ground could not be prepared in time for corn. The Farm Crops Department of the Ohio State University recommends drilling about three pecks per acre. The drills should be wide enough apart to allow for cultivation.

If the soil has not grown soybeans before, the soybeans should be molested and mixed with soil from a soybean field at the rate of one quart of soil to one bushel of soybeans. A little liquid glue added to the water insures some of the soil adhering to each bean and makes for better inoculation.

A variety of soybeans must be selected that will mature. For seed production in the northern part of Ohio, Elton and Ho Sun varieties are good. In addition to these Mongol and Ohio 9035 may be sown throughout the state. For hay production the Elton, Mongol, and Ohio 9035 are recommended.

Soybean hay is equal in feeding value and in palatability to clover and alfalfa. The value of the seed produced per acre in many cases exceeds that for corn.

Summer Forage for Hogs Reduces Cost of Production.

"Growing and fattening hogs in the summer time without the use of some pasture crops is usually an uneconomical practice," says John W. White, Department of Animal Husbandry, Ohio State University. "A saving of 10 to 15 percent of the total amount of grain and supplements may be expected through the use of forage."

"In order to supply plenty of pasture all through the season, it will be best to supply several kinds of forage crops if possible, as no single crop fulfills the forage requirements for an entire season. Among the crops best suited as hog forage are alfalfa, red clover, rape, and soybeans. Rape may be sown anytime. Many successful hog raisers sow soybeans in with their corn and 'hog off' the crop."—O. S. U. Bulletin.

Ohio Boys' and Girls' Clubs Boost Interest in Farming.

That the social side of rural life as well as a more practical interest in farming in Ohio will be boosted by the Boys' and Girls' Clubs, is the opinion of their state leader, W. H. Palmer. He says, "The objects of the clubs are the teaching to the boys and girls approved methods of agriculture and home economics, the development of initiative and resourcefulness, and the awakening of a greater love and appreciation of rural life by having the boys and girls demonstrate what may be accomplished in farm production."

There are more than 13,000 mothers in 25 counties. The girls have food and clothing clubs and the boys have pig, corn, potato, calf, sheep, poultry, stock judging, and garden clubs.

Free Field Inspection of Improved Varieties of Wheat.

Tests made at the various experiment station farms have proved that some varieties of wheat are the best yielders in one section of the state and that other varieties are the best yielders in other sections. In order to have farmers in each community grow those varieties that are the best yielders for their particular section of the state, arrangements have been made for the inspection of fields of approved varieties by representatives of the Farm Crops Department of the College of Agriculture. The farmer reports to his county agricultural agent who makes arrangements with the inspectors.

If the field is found to be free from a mixture of other wheat varieties, free from disease and weeds, and is cleanly threshed, assistance will be given the farmer in disposing of his wheat for seedling purposes.—O. S. U. Bulletin.

After the big things done during the past year the Mother's Circle enjoyed all the more a picnic outing at beautiful Cedar Hurst on Wednesday. Members of the Circle and their families to the number of a hundred motored out the middle of the afternoon and the hours that followed were crowded with distinctive pleasure of the summer outing, bathing, boating wading and everything that Cedar Hurst affords in the entertainment line.

The picnic supper was a sumptuous feast of good things with plenty of ice cream and ice cream cones for the children.

Flag Day will be honored by the Daughters of the American Revolution on Saturday, June the fourteenth.

Following the custom of the past two years ceremonies will be conducted on the Court House lawn at four o'clock Saturday afternoon. Hon. Frank C. Parrett will deliver the address and there will be a program of readings by children and patriotic songs.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Charlotte Tuttle Sisterhood enjoyed the annual picnic on the lawn of Mrs. Regina U. Staubus' home, Wednesday evening.

It was altogether one of the most delightful of summer gatherings, with fifty women and children grouped under the generous shade of the fine old trees of the immense lawn, and enjoying the beauty of the scene and the perfect evening, with sunset glow and succeeding moonlight.

"Light refreshments were served and the time was a very happy one. Guests were Mrs. Barry, Matron of Twin Ash, and Miss Elma Roberts, of Morrow, who will be Dean of Women at Wilmington College next year."—Wilmington News.

Blakeley with Mesdames R. S. Quinn, J. A. Worrell, J. L. Rothrock, W. R. Smith, W. B. Hershey, Frank S. Jackson, W. M. Mitchener, the assisting hostesses.

The beautiful home, fresh from the hands of the decorator, with its lovely woodwork of old ivory and upholstery and draperies introducing effective shades of soft rose and moss green, provided most effective setting, and was given added attraction in baskets and vases of gorgeous June roses and peonies.

A refreshing summer collation was served.

The affair was admirably planned and carried to complete success by Mrs. Kingery. While Mr. W. B. Little entered into the plan and detained Mr. Kingery on an auto ride, friends gathered with baskets that fairly groaned with delicious eatables and when the honor guests returned to his home it was to find a bounteous picnic feast in readiness under the shade on the lawn. The guests included: Mrs. Vernon Rothrock, Misses Jess Mantle, Hazel Gillespie, Lillian Taylor, Mary Cox, Helen Dixon, Lila and Nell Rowan, Marie Melvin and Mildred Kidd.

The women of the Sugar Grove W. C. T. U. were indebted to Mrs. Nell Darlington for enjoyable entertainment at their all day meeting, Wednesday.

Each woman had contributed a delicacy to the bounteous noon-day dinner, served cafeteria style.

A short program in charge of Mrs. Augusta Haines was rendered. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Elva Post, and Mrs. Haines gave a very comprehensive and intensely interesting talk on the origin of Flower Mission Day, and why it was observed each year. She closed with a report of this day at the Infirmary and Children's Home last week.

Mrs. Juanita Haines Nisley contributed a charming reading.

Victrola music, a profusion of summer flowers used effectively throughout the rooms, together with the cordial hospitality of the Darlington home, all were features of the day's pleasure.

U. S. SHIPPING
RECORD GREAT

London, May 14.—Correspondence of The Associated Press.—The United States was building on March 31 twice as much shipping as was Great Britain, according to the figures given by Lloyd's Register for the first three months of 1919.

The total amount of all shipping under construction on that date in Allied and neutral countries was given 7,796,266 tons. Great Britain's share of this was 2,254,845. The United States was then building 4,185,523 tons of shipping.

These figures credit the United States with 75 percent of the total tonnage under construction in Allied or neutral countries outside of Great Britain and it is pointed out that the United States is now building 28 times as much as it was in June, 1914. One London paper says the effect of so many newly built ships entering into sea going trade already is being felt.

KNOX MEASURE RECOMMENDED FOR ADOPTION

United States Aid In Europe Section Abolished

Foreign Relations Committee Acts

(By Associated Press)
 Washington, June 12.—Senator Knox's resolution to put the senate on record against accepting the League of Nations in the terms of the peace treaty was recommended for adoption today in amendment by the Foreign Relations Committee.

The committee cut out the section declaring it a policy of the American government that whenever the peace of Europe becomes again threatened the United States would co-operate to remove such a menace.

A resolution reserving the right of the American Congress to determine the justness of the obligations imposed upon this country under the much discussed section 19 of the League of Nations covenant, meanwhile was introduced by Senator Sterling, republican, of South Dakota.

The motion to amend the Knox measure was made by Chairman Lodge and had the support of Senator Knox and all other republican members except McCumber of North Dakota. No other amendments were adopted.

CITY LOSES ONE OF ITS FOREMOST BUSINESS HEADS

Death Claims George Inskeep, Wealthy Manufacturer, Banker, Builder and Influential Citizen.

For Years Had Been Prominently Identified With City's Business Interests.

George Inskeep, wealthy capitalist and foremost business man of Washington C. H., whose name is indelibly identified with the county seat's commercial success and manufacturing interests and whose upright life and moral worth were on a par with his high standing in the business world, passed into the Great Beyond at noon Thursday, leaving this community bereft of one of its strong pillars.

Mr. Inskeep has been in failing health for the past two years, his death resulting at the age of 68 years from a complication of diseases which he had combatted with the same indomitable spirit with which he had faced every issue of life. His sterling character and scrupulous honesty in all relations of life won for him a deservedly high place in the esteem of the people with whom he had so long lived and mingled and who realize with deep sadness the extent of the loss involved in his death.

Mr. Inskeep was more prominently identified with Washington's manufacturing interests than any one man and was as largely responsible for the city's industrial activities. In the manufacturing game his services were invaluable both in the financing end and in directing financial policies. He was one of the chief organizers of the P. Hagerty Shoe Co., of the Washington Savings Bank and Trust Co., and of the Inskeep Mfg. Co. with branch factories in Columbus, Springfield and Marion, Ill. At the time of his death he was President of the P. Hagerty Shoe Co., and First Vice President of the Savings Bank.

Mr. Inskeep was largely engaged in building and erected a number of homes for rent in all parts of the town. He also had business interests in Columbus, Springfield and Marion, Ill., besides large farming interests in this county.

The two big interests of Mr. Inskeep's life centered in his home and in his business. To his wife and his home he was deeply devoted and always welcomed his friends with genial hospitality.

One of a large family the ties between the brother and sisters were closely bound. With him at the time of his death were his wife, one sister, Mrs. C. W. Riber, of Hillsboro, and his nephew, Mr. G. W. Inskeep, of this city.

Mr. Inskeep came to this city from Brown county on October the 25th, 1883. Prior to moving here he had been engaged in manufacturing and grocery business in Georgetown, O., and during his first years in Washington engaged in the wool and mercantile business, later branching out into broader interests.

To the widow and relatives so greatly bereaved, goes out the deep sympathy of many friends.

Funeral announcement will be made Friday.

U. S. ARMY HORSES USED BY PEASANTS

With the American Army of Occupation, May 15. (By Mail)—American army horses some of which last year hauled artillery over the battlefields of France will this summer be used by French peasants in various districts as aids in tilling the soil of hundreds of acres of devastated regions.

Details for the sale of ten thousand and American army horses and mules to the French government were completed recently at the headquarters of the American Army of Occupation. These animals are to be shipped from the occupied area of the Rhineland to France by rail and sold by the French government direct to the peasants. The first batch of one thousand horses sold to the French under this arrangement brought about $200 each.

CRAIG BROS

MAYOR DAHL IN GREASED PIG RACE

According to confidential advices given out today by the plenary council having to do with the greased hog feature of the Fish and Game picnic at Cedar Hurst next Wednesday, Mayor V. J. Dahl has officially entered his name as a prospective contestant. It is said Hizzoner plans to go into immediate training for the event.

Two other formidable contestants, J. Morris Baker and Ed Fite also have announced their intention of entering the lists and are pursuing the necessary means of getting in trim. Hogmaster John Weade, promoter of the event and custodian of the elusive porker, announced today that he would accept up to fifteen entries, and anyone desiring to take part in the rollic should communicate immediately with him.

The rules of the game are simple and far-reaching. The big idea is to first catch the pig, which is a dandy and which will be profusely lubricated to make the affair more interesting. Said pig must then be duly and securely incarcerated in a pen expressly built for that purpose and conveniently located. That done, the captor becomes the winner of the event and owner of the pig.

The thing will be conducted in a strictly sportsmanlike manner, and contestants will be enjoined from using shotguns, seins, lariats or other accessories.

Musical Authority Places Stamp of Approval on Centenary Trombone Choir of M. E. Celebration

A WONDERFUL organization of 100 trombone players, to be heard in concerts of sacred, semi-sacred and patriotic numbers, is to be one of the outstanding features of the Methodist Centenary Celebration at Columbus, O., June 20 to July 13. At first this unusual musical organization was not taken seriously by musical authorities. Investigation, however, stilled all criticisms and turned doubt into enthusiasm. The picture shows Dr. Edgar Stillman Kelley of Western College for Women, Oxford, O., composer of "New England Symphony," "Pilgrim's Progress" and other orchestral compositions of world fame, congratulating

Frank M. Sutphen, director of the trombone choir on his great success. Dr. Kelly at once arranged to furnish some special scores for the trombone choir. On the left of Mr. Kelley is Hermann Belstedt of Cincinnati, a bandmaster of national reputation, who was also amazed at the work of the trombone choir. "Not trombone spoken so wonderfully," he says. Between Mr. Belstedt and Mr. Sutphen stands H. B. Dickson, organizing secretary of the Centenary Celebration, who is the father of the trombone choir idea and who had faith in it, before the musicians themselves.

WHY COLUMBUS WAS MADE CENTENARY CITY

Has Largest Percentage of Methodists in the World.

What brought the Methodist Centenary Celebration to Columbus, June 20 to July 13, is the question in the minds of a great many Methodists and non-Methodists throughout the United States and elsewhere.

When H. B. Dickson was chosen organizing director of the celebration by the joint commission of the Methodist Church South and the Methodist Church North, he immediately set about to find the most suitable place for the greatest event of its kind ever held—a city which could take care of the 250,000 persons who would come to this gathering, and one which was so located that it could be most easily reached by the people most concerned.

Mr. Dickson made a tour of a number of the principal cities of the United States, including Washington, Baltimore, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Kansas City and others of that class. He came back by way of Detroit, where he received instructions to go over the same territory again, stopping at cities that had not been visited before. On the way Mr. Dickson stopped at Indianapolis. Indianapolis tried to interest him by showing him the Indiana state fair grounds. This gave Mr. Dickson an idea, but he was not satisfied. Previously he had not considered the possibility of utilizing buildings such as constitute the equipment of a state fair grounds.

Next he came to Columbus, where he found the state exposition grounds, and he was captivated at once. "There is nothing like these accommodations anywhere in the United States," he said. But this was not enough to persuade the combined board of dignitaries of the two churches most interested. Then it was up to him to get an argument that would convince the bishops, district superintendents and others in authority in the churches.

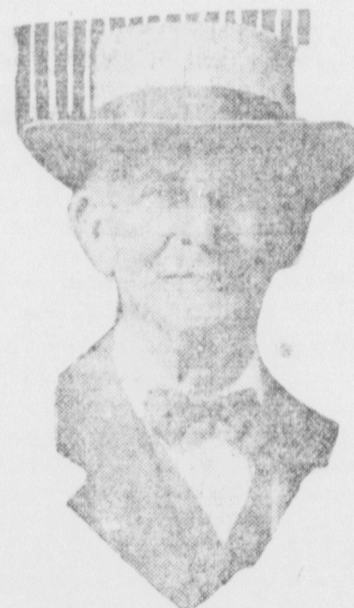

Mr. Dickson began to draw circles around the cities of any size in the United States, to find out where the Methodists were to be found. In this way he discovered that there were more Methodist churches with 1,000 members and over in the city of Columbus than in any other city in the world. He also found that there were 100,000 Methodists living within two hours' ride of the city of Columbus, more than 1,000,000 within a three-hour ride of the city; 3,000,000 Methodists within an over-night's ride of the city.

With reference to the Methodist Church South, it was found that there was no city the size of Columbus, even including Baltimore, Washington and Cincinnati, within an equally convenient railroad distance to as large a proportion of their membership as Columbus.

These facts laid before the joint Centenary commission settled all arguments and determined definitely on Columbus as the site for the Methodist Centenary Celebration in June and July.

AGED MINISTER LIKES TO GO AUTOMOBILING

Will Attend Methodist Centenary
Celebration June 20-July 13.

REV. ALBERT VOGEL.

Aged Minister to Attend Methodist Centenary Celebration.

Rev. Albert Vogel of Genette, Pa., at the age of 102 is praying every day that his life may be spared to enable him to be present at the Methodist Centenary celebration which will be in Columbus, O., from June 20 to July 13.

Entering the ministry before the age of 25, he has occupied the pulpit for more than 50 years. In the early sixties he was pastor in Bucyrus, where he established lifelong friends. When 100 years old he visited that city, the event being the laying of the cornerstone of the Methodist church.

The centenarian has a keen sense of humor and believes in practicing some of the health rules as set forth by Dr. Charles Barker, the national health expert. Vogel looks like a man of 60 and his hearing and sight are unimpaired. His step, too, in spite of his old age, is firm and steady. All of these things he attributes largely to long walks and early rising.

SHOULD REGISTER EARLY

Visitors to Methodist Centenary to Be Well Cared For.

The one plea of H. B. Dickson, organizing secretary of the Methodist Centenary to Methodists North, South, East and West, is that visitors register early. The registration fee is $5 for an individual, or $10 for a family, including all members under 21. Registration covers admission to the exposition grounds each day of the celebration at Columbus, June 20 to July 13, and it also secures the services of the Methodist Celebration housing committee.

"There is no use mincing matters," says Mr. Dickson. "Those who register earliest will get the best services and best accommodations. We are trying to provide for an eleven-hour rush, but it is never so satisfactory to work under those conditions as when people take matters in their hands early enough to get good attention."

RAIN, HAIL AND WIND IN JASPER

About four o'clock Wednesday afternoon a heavy rain, hail and wind storm struck Jasper township and in some parts of the township, notably about Plymouth, a great deal of damage was done by the hail while around Milledgeville the windstorm was very heavy and a number of trees were blown down and other damage done.

Over a small territory about Plymouth the crops were considerably damaged by the fall of hailstones. The storm was accompanied by quite a bit of lightning.

Coming from the west, the storm cloud reached almost to this city, but after hanging almost stationary for some little time, during which it presented a most threatening appearance it was forced back westward by the east wind, and did not touch this city.

EXPLAINS THE DISORDERS IN LAND OF EGYPT

Paris, May 5.—(By Mail)—A statement concerning the present disorders in Egypt, explaining the situation from the viewpoint of the agitators, has been given to The Associated Press by Mohamed Mohmoud Pasha, a member of an Egyptian Delegation of twenty which is here to ask the Peace Conference to recognize the independence of Egypt. Mohamed Mohmoud Pasha was at one time governor of the Suez Canal and later governor of the province of Behera. He with three other leaders of his party were deported recently to Malta but were released after a month and came on to Paris. His statement follows:

"The political status of Egypt underwent a great change, owing to the war. International relations between Egypt and other countries must be rearranged, and the British Protectorate which was proclaimed at the beginning of the war and which has never been accepted by the Egyptian people, was a war measure and cannot stand after the termination of the war.

"All these questions which emanated from the war can be settled by the Peace Conference only, and a proper settlement necessitates the hearing of Egypt's voice therein. For these reasons the Egyptian delegates were empowered by means of mandates from all classes of the Egyptian people to come to Paris, plead the cause of their country before the Peace Conference, and request therefrom the recognition of the independence of Egypt.

"But the delegation was prevented by British authorities from leaving for Europe, and the Egyptian Ministry which was in complete solidarity with the people, resigned early in March last. No Egyptian was found to form a ministry, and for this bankruptcy of British administration in Egypt, the delegation was held responsible."

It was announced that Reno and Turner would form the battery for the game Sunday afternoon with plenty of reserve material on hand.

Mr. Payne's stomach had him, for a while. "Under its thumb" for seven years. He, like many others, suffered miserably with indigestion. His statement will be a welcome suggestion to others.

"For seventeen years I have suffered with smothering spells and bloating. I had no appetite and it was a common thing to go two or three days without eating and have gone four. I have taken two cans of Dr. Parker's Treatment for Indigestion and Constipation, which has completely cured me, and I am now able to enjoy three square meals a day and can eat all kinds of food. It has done wonders for me."

Dr. Parker's Treatment for Indigestion and Constipation is made and guaranteed by Parker Medicine Company, of Athens, Ohio, after the favorite prescription used for thirty years by Geo. B. Parker, M. D., specialist in digestive and bowel disorders. Your dollar back if not satisfied. For sale by all druggists. Adv.

Get Into The Stubble Early

There'll be lots of moisture in the soil after harvest this season.

Have your Fordson ready for early plowing to make this moisture mean bigger crops next year. Early plowing will cause this moisture to bring decay of stubble and trash, and return to the soil much of the material of which this year's crops rob it.

You can turn from harvest to plowing early with the Fordson without tearing the mid-summer heat as must be the case with horses.

Statistics prove: The more time elapses between plowing and seeding the larger the crop. Begin Now to Farm with a Fordson.

A New Battery? Possibly Not!

More often NOT. Don't be misled into believing you must buy a new battery. A small expense on the old one may put it in shape to run the season out, if the rebuilding is done properly. Don't be satisfied until you hear what we have to say. And then remember this: We guarantee our repair work on the adjustment basis, and you simply can't lose when we do it. We won't let you.

We have revived many an apparently worthless battery and are still doing it.

C. & O. TO USE B. & O. TO SHIP COAL TO LAKES

Large Amount of Coal Will Pass Through This City On Way to the Lakes.

Two Mile Interchange Track Being Constructed For This Purpose.

Within the next few months a large amount of C. & O. coal will be pouring through this city over the B. & O. Wellston Branch, as result of an agreement between the two roads, and to make this possible a two-mile interchange track is now being constructed between the two roads at Renicks, in Ross county.

Regarding the diversion of the coal through this city the News-Advertiser of Chillicothe says:

"In order to care for increased coal traffic of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, work was started on two miles of interchange track by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Renick's Monday. The work marks the beginning of a plan long contemplated by both roads. Eighty men are now at work and this force will be increased to 100.

"Some years ago, in order to care for its lake-bound coal, the C. & O. crossed the Ohio river at Portsmouth and built its line north to Glen Jean, near Waverly. There its freight was transferred to the Norfolk and Western railroad to Columbus.

"Business has increased so that this method and that of the old C. & O. west along the Ohio river to Cincinnati, and then north to the lakes are now taxed to capacity and a new outlet has to be sought.

"When the B. & O. interchange tracks at Renicks are completed, C. & O. lake-bound freight, will be brought to Glen Jean, then over the N. & W. to Renicks, then through the new tracks to the Toledo division of the B. & O. to Toledo by way of the B. & O. to Toledo by way of Washington C. H. and Dayton.

"Besides the two interchange tracks, adequate storage sidings will be constructed."

CITATION FOR BRAVE YANK

Paris, May 15. (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The Official Journal has just published a citation awarded to Ferdinand Capdevielle, of New York, who was one of the first Americans to enlist in the Foreign Legion at the commencement of the war. It reads:

"Capdevielle (Ferdinand), Second-Lieutenant, 170th Regiment, brilliant officer, American citizen; volunteered in the service of France at the very beginning of the war. He has taken part in both the Foreign Legion and the 170th regiment in every important battle of the Champagne. He has always been the admiration of his men and won the esteem of his chiefs by his military and moral valor.

"On October 3, 1918, charged with leading the head platoon of his company to the attack, he made a superb start, progressing despite of the extremely violent fire of enemy machine guns. Fell gloriously, struck by a bullet in the head at the very second he rose to his full height to lead his men to the assault of the enemy."

Lieutenant Capdevielle was, as his name indicates, of French origin. He became a sergeant in the Legion and was offered a commission in the French army (a rare thing.)

CHANGE IN PLAN FOR SELECTING FRENCH OFFICERS

Paris, May 4.—(By Mail)—Representation of minorities is assured under the new Electoral Reform Law passed by the French Parliament, which will probably bring about considerable change in the strength of parties in the Chamber of Deputies. The most recent enactment almost abolished entirely the old system of choosing members, which provided for a second ballot in case candidates did not poll an absolute majority of the votes in their constituency.

An example of what occurred under the old system during the election of 1885 in the department of the Var where the present Premier Clemenceau was one of the candidates will serve to show how the returns will
